Notes:

1. “Complete” applications are those applications that include all required documents and all information necessary to evaluate the application against the standards established by the CDD Board of Supervisors. The board will not consider incomplete applications. Once all the required documents and information has been received, the application will be considered “complete” and will be acted upon in accordance with the above schedule based upon the date of receipt of all required documents and information.
2. All meetings of the Board of Supervisors will be held at the Meadow Pointe One Clubhouse and will begin at 6:30 PM.
